

Color me!

Plants and mosquitoes have one thing in common, they need water to grow! When you water your plants, make sure not to water them too much because extra standing water becomes perfect areas for mosquitoes to lay their eggs!

Did you know that mosquitoes only need a teaspoon or 1/2 an inch of water to lay their eggs?

